

Environmentally Safe VpCI®/MCI® Technologies

COMMERCIAL PROPOSAL

Scope	Lump Sum Price
Supply and installation supervision for CorroLogic corrosion control system for the protection of tank bottom plates against soil-side corrosion for Tank No. F50-T35 at Petro Rabigh Refinery. Price includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Custom engineered design and specification documents to include detailed installation instructions</li><li>- Supply of 25 x 22.3kg drums of Cortec VpCI 609S delivered to site inclusive of transport, customs and clearance expenses</li><li>- Supply of VpCI® Injection equipment for duration of project to be returned to Cortec after completion of works.</li><li>- Installation supervision of corrosion inhibitor injection activity</li><li>- Corrosion Monitoring System to include four ER Probes, one MS1500E Datalogger and installation supervision</li></ul>	$55,923/-

Terms and Conditions:

Basis:	Quoted price is a promotion price to allow Petro Rabigh Refinery to assess Cortec's Corrologic System.
Delivery:	Corrosion Inhibitor material and monitoring system within 6 - 8 weeks of firm confirmation of order
Program	Detailed installation instructions to be provided within 72 hours of order confirmation.
Validity	1 month
Payment:	50% in advance 25% upon delivery of material Balance upon completion of works

Environmentally Safe VpCI®/MCI® Technologies

Exclusions

Client will be responsible for providing the following free of cost:

- Issuance of all permits, passes and approvals required for access of Texel and Cortec staff and works execution.
- Team for execution of works under Cortec's supervision to include project engineer and staff. Works to include:
  - o Installing temporary injection ports, applying inhibitor through the tank floor then patching plates and installation of monitoring system
- Provide a compressor with at least 250cfm capacity
- Supply required fittings for temporary injection ports and ER-Probe sleeves
- Electrical power and potable water if needed
- Suitable storage facilities for the materials

We hope the above offer meets your requirements. Please feel free to contact us if you have any further questions or comments.

Sincerely,

Khalil Abed
CORTEC Middle East
Mobile: +971-50- 5576150
kabid@cortecvci.com